We're proud to support these iconic events by outfitting teams and fans with designs that showcase strength, heritage, and unity.

COLLABORATIVE ARTWORK

We work closely with talented Indigenous artists and designers to feature authentic traditional artwork across our range. Each pattern and symbol carries meaning, whether it's representing kinship ties, land, or journey and is honoured through quality craftsmanship and thoughtful placement.

CUSTOM DESIGNS

Every team has a story. Whether you're competing at a major event or repping your community in everyday wear, we offer fully custom jerseys and apparel that incorporate your own artwork, themes, and colours. Our design team works closely with clients to create gear that feels personal and powerful.

RESPECT REPRESENTATION QUALITY

At Struddys, we're committed to creating apparel that does justice to the culture it represents. That means respectful collaboration, community-led design, and premium materials built for performance and pride.

BEYOND JERSEYS

Our Indigenous collection extends beyond the field, from polos and hoodies to tracksuits and off-field wear. Whether you're outfitting a whole squad or just want to represent your mob with pride, we've got a full range of apparel options that carry your culture wherever you go.

OUR AMBASSADORS

Our ambassador program celebrates the diverse world of sports and the extraordinary individuals who redefine the game. At Struddys, we pride ourselves on being more than just a brand; we're a community that embraces every sport, every player, and every inspiring story.

Our ambassadors embody the spirit of Struddys – they are the trailblazers, the team players, and the relentless competitors who don't just play the game; they redefine it. Whether it's on the field, court, track, or any sports arena, our ambassadors are the ones who make an impact and leave an indelible mark.

What sets Struddys apart is our commitment to all sports, transcending boundaries and bringing together a roster of ambassadors that spans a myriad of disciplines. From soccer to basketball, rugby to athletics, our ambassadors showcase the true essence of athleticism and sportsmanship, reminding us that the love for the game knows no limits.

Join us in celebrating these history-makers, not just within their sports but also in the broader context of sports and empowerment. Struddys ambassadors aren't just athletes; they are catalysts for change, inspiring others to push boundaries and redefine what's possible.

Welcome to a community that goes beyond the sidelines – a community where every sport, every athlete, and every ambassador has a place. Welcome to Struddys – where the game is more than a competition; it's a way of life.
